JULY

I. ENGLISH WRITTEN WORK

1. Names of Common Birds:
   Cock, crow, sparrow, peacock, parrot, swan, crane, duck, eagle and owl.
2. Names of Water Animals:
   fish, whale, crab, dolphin, frog, and crocodile.
3. Framing sentences using "This" and "That"

II. NUMBER WORK:

1. Writing in words 1 to 10
2. Even Nos. from 2 to 100
3. Writing of numbers from 101 to 200

III. GENERAL KNOWLEDGE:

Question and answers from P.D book
Topics:

1. Birds
2. Action Matching
3. Sea Animals
4. Keeping Healthy
5. Counting
6. Musical Instruments

IV. RHYMES :

1. A summer song
2. Old Mac Donald
3. Clouds
4. Monday alone
5. Georgie Porgie
6. Row Row Row your boat
7. Sing a song of sixpence and other rhymes taught in the class.

V. READING:

Joy of English (J.E.Book) –16 to 18 , 20, 21, 23, 24, 26, 48 to 50 and 54 to 56.

VII. STORY TELLING:

1. The Foolish Rabbit
2. Three ducklings

VIII. BHAGAVADGITA CHANTING :

Dhyana Shloka.

The Three Ducklings

Once upon a time, there lived three ducklings in a pond. They were Dibble, Dab and Dot. In a farm nearby, they had a friend called Mr. Rags, who was a scarecrow. One day, they saw Mr. Rags wearing a torn hat. They wanted to make a new hat for their friend. So they went to Mr. Otter's shop and bought– sticky tape , bright coloured papers and strings. They sat near the pond and started to make the hat.

Suddenly, it began raining. The tape stuck to their beaks and the strings wrapped around their feet. The paper became wet and torn. "This is hopeless", said Dab and Dot."I have an idea", said Dibble."Let's visit Mrs. Mouse. She will help us as she is a tailor". They went to Mrs. Mouse's house and knocked on the door.

Mrs. Mouse opened the door and asked them, "What can I do for you?"."We need your help to make a new hat for Mr. Rags", said the three ducklings. Mrs. Mouse was happy to help them .She sat on her sewing machine and made a smart, new hat. They all stuck shapes on it and put a feather on top of the hat. Once it stopped raining and the three ducklings took the new hat to Mr. Rags. They put the hat on his head, and he was very happy. Mr Rags said," It is just what I wanted. Thank you". Now everyone was happy.

Moral: A friend in need is a friend indeed.